

---

Paul H. Graff

Paul H. Graff Paul H. Graff, age 76, of 6351 W. Lake Rd., Erie (formerly of Couneautville) passed away on June 27, 2009 at Hamot Medical Center, Erie. He was born in Oil City May 13, 1933, a son of the late C. Graff. He married his beloved wife of 40 years Carol Hoesch and she preceded him in death. He was retired from G.E. of Erie as a supervisor after 35 years of service. He was an Army Veteran and an usher of the Valley Church-United Methodist of Conneautville. He enjoyed being with his family, his hometown team and cheering on the Cleveland Indians & Browns, exercising, and keeping his golf course in the summer. Survivors include his son Paul Brian Graff of Erie, his daughter Darlene, sister Kathryn Mead of Conneautville, and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, brother Lewis Graff, and sister Betty Jane Johnson Palermo. A private family & close friends service will be held prior to the 11:00 a.m. service at the White-Cool Funeral Home, 1405 Main St., Conneautville, Pa. Pastor Robert Trask of the Valley Church-United Methodist officiating. Interment will be in the Valley Church Cemetery. Memorials may be made to the Valley Church-United Methodist, 1118 Main St., Conneautville, Pa. 16406 or the Paralyzed Veterans Association. Sign the guestbook at www.GraffFuneralHome.com

Published in the Erie Times-News on June 27, 2009

---